

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

AN ACT TO AMEND AN ACT ENTITLED "AN ACT FOR GRANTING CERTAIN PRIVILEGES TO THE COLLEGE, HERETOFORE CALLED KINGS COLLEGE: FOR ALTERING THE NAME AND CHARTER THEREOF, AND ERECTING AN UNIVERSITY WITHIN THIS STATE" PASSED THE 1ST DAY OF MAY, 1784.

PASSED NOVEMBER 26, 1784.

LAWS OF 1785, CHAPTER 15.

Recites that, "Whereas, it is represented to the legislature, that the dispersed residences of many of the regents of the university of this State, and the largeness of the quorum who are made capable of business, the interest and prosperity of the said university, have been greatly obstructed. And it is also represented, that certain doubts have arisen as to the construction of the act entitled 'An act for granting certain privileges to the college heretofore called Kings-college, for altering the name and charter thereof and erecting an university within this State,' passed the 1st day of May, 1784. For remedy whereof." The act provides: "That in addition to the regents appointed in and by the before mentioned act, the several persons herein after named, shall be and hereby respectively are constituted regents of the said university (that is to say): John Jay, Samuel Provost, John H. Livingston, John Rodgers, John Mason, John Ganoe, John Daniel Gros, Johann Ch. Kunze, Joseph Delaplain, Gershom Seixas, Alexander Hamilton, John Laurance, John Rutherford, Morgan Lewis, Leonard Lisenard, John Cochran, Charles McKnight, Thomas Jones, Malachi Treat and Nicholas Romain of New York, Peter W. Yates, Mathew Vischer, and Heenlock Woodruf of Albany, George I. L. And that the said respective regents, hereby constituted, shall enjoy the same power and authority, as are granted to, and vested in the other regents appointed by the said act, as fully and effectually, as if they had been therein expressly named." The act also provides for meetings and quorums of the regents, and authorizes the treasurer of the State to advance the sum of £2552 to the treasurer of the university for the use of Columbia College.

CHARTER OF 1787.

AN ACT TO INSTITUTE AN UNIVERSITY WITHIN THIS STATE AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES THEREIN MENTIONED.

PASSED APRIL 13, 1787.

LAWS OF 1787, CHAPTER 82.

Recites that:—"Whereas, by two acts of the legislature of the State of New York, the one passed the first day of May, and the other twenty sixth day of November, one thousand seven hundred and eighty four, an university is instituted within this State, in the manner and with the powers therein specified. And whereas from the representation of the regents of the said university, it appears there are defects in the constitution of the said university which call for alterations and amendments. And whereas a number of acts on the same subject amending correcting and altering former ones, tend to render the same less intelligible and easily to be understood. Whereof to the end, that the constitution of the said university may be properly amended and appear entire in one law, it will be expedient, to delineate and establish the same in this, and repeal all former acts relative thereto." The act provides for the establishment of a university to be called and known by the name or style of "The Regents of the University of the State of New York," and creates the regents a corporation, with power to visit and inspect all the colleges, academies or schools which are or may be established in the State, to confer diplomas, and to grant charters. The act further repeals the acts passed May 1st and November 26th, 1784, and provides:

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the charter heretofore granted to the governors of the college of the province of New-York, in the city of New-York, in America, dated the thirty-first day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifty-four, shall be, and hereby is fully and absolutely ratified and confirmed, in all respects, except that the college thereby established, shall be henceforth called Columbia College: That the style of the said corporation shall be, The trustees of Columbia College, in the city of New-York; and that no persons shall be trustees of the same, in virtue of any offices, characters, or descriptions whatever; excepting also such clauses thereof as require the taking of oaths, and subscribing the declaration therein mentioned; and which render a person ineligible to the office of president of the college, on account of his religious tenets, and prescribe a form of public prayer to be used in the said college; and also excepting the clause thereof which provides, that the by-laws and ordinances to be made in pursuance thereof, should not be repugnant to the laws and statutes of that part of the kingdom of Great-Britain, called England; except also, that in all cases where fifteen governors are required to constitute a quorum for the despatch of business, thirteen trustees shall be sufficient. Provided always, That the by-laws and ordinances to be made by the trustees of the said Columbia college, shall not be contrary to the constitution and laws of this state. (Repealed by Laws of 1810, Chapter 85.)

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That James Duane, Samuel Provost, John H. Livingston, Richard Varick, Alexander Hamilton, John Mason, James Wilson, John Gano, Brockholst Livingston, Robert Harpur, John Daniel Gross, Johan Christoff Kunze, Walter Livingston, Lewis A. Scott, Joseph Delaplaine, Leonard Lisenard, Abraham Beach, John Lawrance, John Rutherford, Morgan Lewis, John Cochran, Gershom Seixas, Charles McKnight, Thomas Jones, Malachi Treat, Samuel Bard, Nicholas Romein, Benjamin Kissam, and Ebenezer Crossby, shall be, and they are hereby constituted and declared to be the present trustees of Columbia college, in the city of New-York, and that when by the death or resignation, or removal of any of the said trustees, the number of those trustees shall be reduced to twenty-four, then and from thenceforth the said twenty-four trustees shall be, and they hereby are declared and constituted trustees of the said Columbia college, in perpetual succession, according to the true intent and meaning of the said charter; and all vacancies thereafter shall be supplied in the manner thereby directed. (Repealed by Laws of 1810, Chapter 85.)

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all and singular the power, authority, rights, privileges, franchises, and immunities, so heretofore granted to, and vested in the said governors of the college of the province of New-York, in the city of New-York, in America, by the said charter, excepting as before excepted, shall be, and the same hereby are granted to and vested in the trustees of Columbia college, in the city of New-York, and their successors forever, as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as if the same were herein particularly specified and expressed; and all and singular the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and real estate, goods, chattels, rents, annuities, moneys, books, and other property, whereof the said governors of the college of the province of New-York, in the city of New-York, in America, were seised, possessed, or entitled, under and in virtue of the said charter, or with which the regents of the said university were invested, under or by virtue of the said acts, for the use or benefit of the said Columbia college, shall be, and the same hereby are granted to and vested in the said trustees of Columbia college, in the city of New-York, and their successors forever, for the sole use and benefit of the said college; and it shall and may be lawful to and for the said trustees, and their successors, to grant, bargain, sell, demise, improve, and dispose of the same, as to them shall seem meet. (Repealed by Laws of 1810, Chapter 85.)

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when any special meeting of the trustees of the said college shall be deemed necessary, it shall and may be lawful to and for the senior trustee of the said college, then in the city of New-York, and taking upon himself the exercise of his office, (which seniority shall be determined according to the order in which the said trustees are named in this act, and shall be elected hereafter,) and he is hereby authorized and required, on application for that purpose in writing under the hands of any five or more of the said trustees, to appoint a time for such special meeting, in some convenient place within the said city, and to cause due notice thereof to be given in the manner directed by the said charter. (Repealed by Laws of 1810, Chapter 85.)

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the act, entitled, An act for granting certain privileges to the college heretofore called King's college, for altering the name and charter thereof, and erecting a university within this state, passed the 1st day of May, 1784; and the act, entitled, An act to amend an act, entitled, An act for granting certain privileges to the college heretofore called King's college, for altering the name and charter thereof, and erecting an university within this state, passed the 26th day of November, 1784, be, and they are hereby severally repealed.

LAWS OF 1792, CHAPTER 69.

Whereas it has been represented to the legislature, that the funds of Columbia college, in this state, have, in consequence of events which took place during the late war, been so far diminished, as to render it impracticable for the trustees to defray certain necessary expenses which have accrued to the college in consequence of the alterations in the streets of the city of New York, and to repair the losses which the college sustained during the late war, with respect to its library, and to incur such further expenses as would render the seminary more extensively useful, without pecuniary aid from the legislature: For remedy whereof,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, That there shall be allowed and paid to the trustees of Columbia college, or their order, for the use of the institution, the sum of fifteen hundred pounds, for the purpose of enlarging its library, and the sum of two hundred pounds for a chemical apparatus; and the sum of twelve hundred pounds for the purpose of building a wall, necessary to support the grounds of the college, and the further sum of five thousand pounds for the purpose of erecting a hall and an additional wing to the college, pursuant to the original plan of the institution; and the treasurer is hereby authorized to pay the said respective sums out of such moneys as may be or may come into the treasury, of the annual revenue of the State, and which may not be appropriated for the purpose of supporting government, or satisfying claims against the State, or for completing the sum of two hundred thousand pounds to be loaned in the several counties of this state, by virtue of the act, entitled, "An act for loaning moneys belonging to the State."

(Clause two, omitted.)

And be it further enacted, That the treasurer shall annually, for five years, unless otherwise directed by the legislature, pay to the trustees of Columbia college, or their order, out of the like moneys as above described, the sum of seven hundred and

AN ACT TO AMEND THE ACT, ENTITLED, "AN ACT FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF LITERATURE."

PASSED APRIL 3, 1802.

LAWS OF 1802, CHAPTER 105.

Whereas it appears, from a report of the surveyor-general, that the grant of a certain tract of land in the county of Washington, adjoining the south end of Lake George, to the regents of the university, in and by the act, entitled, "An act for the further encouragement of literature," interferes with the bounds of lands previously granted; and the regents having prayed for a grant of other lands adjoining the same, and in lieu thereof, to enable them the more effectually to fulfil the purposes for which the grant of those lands was intended: Therefore,

I. Be it enacted by the People of the State of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly, That the said regents of the university, and their successors, shall be and hereby are vested with the seisin and possession of the lands hereafter described, belonging to the people of this state; that is to say, a certain tract of land in the county of Washington, adjoining the south end of Lake George, beginning on the east shore of the said lake, where the westerly bounds of a tract of two thousand acres, granted by letters patent to William Houghton, strikes the same, and running thence along the said Houghton's tract southerly and westerly to the northwest corner thereof, then with a straight line to the most westerly corner of a tract of two hundred acres granted by letters patent to John Jones, then along the southerly bounds thereof, to Lake George, and then along the same southerly, easterly, and northerly, to the place of beginning, containing one thousand seven hundred and twenty-four acres of land; and the former grant to the said regents, so far as the same included lands not herein described, shall be void.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said regents to grant and convey to the trustees of Columbia and Union colleges, and their successors, the lands above described, together with the lands at Ticonderoga and Crown Point already vested in the said regents, in such proportions as they shall deem just and reasonable, for the use of the said colleges respectively.

AN ACT TO RENDER THE PROVOOST OF COLUMBIA COLLEGE, IN THE CITY OF NEW-YORK, ELIGIBLE TO BE A TRUSTEE THEREOF:

PASSED FEBRUARY 14, 1812.

LAWS OF 1812, CHAPTER 6.

Whereas, the trustees of Columbia college have, by their petition, prayed that the Provoost of the said college may be made eligible as a Trustee of said College:

Be it enacted by the People of the State of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for the Provoost of Columbia College, in the city of New-York, for the time being, to be elected and act as a trustee of the said college, any thing contained in the act, entitled, "an act relative to Columbia College in the city of New-York," or in any other act or charter of the said college, to the contrary notwithstanding.

PETITION TO THE LEGISLATURE.

TO THE HONOURABLE THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY CONVENED:

The Memorial and Petition of the Trustees of Columbia College in the City of New York, Respectfully Sheweth:

That your Memorialists have occupied themselves with great solicitude, & as they believe, not without happy effect, in improving the education of youth who resort to the Seminary under their Care, They deem it neither arrogant in themselves, nor disrespectful to others, to declare their firm conviction, justified, as they suppose, by indisputable facts, that the whole Instruction to be acquired in Columbia College will not suffer in Comparison with that of any other american Colleges in its present state, which they consider as an earnest of what they may expect it will shortly become. But as the reasonable anticipations of your Memorialists are founded in no small degree upon an increase of their pecuniary means, they address themselves with frankness & confidence to your honorable body for such aid as shall enable them most efficiently to cherish the high & important Interests committed to their charge.

Situated in the most important City of the State, an Object of Curiosity & Remark to Strangers; & indispensable in its position, to a large portion of the Students who must obtain a liberal Education on the spot, or be deprived of it altogether, Columbia College presents a Spectacle mortifying to its friends, humiliating to the City, and calculated to inspire opinions which it is impossible your enlightened body would wish to countenance.

The foundation of a new wing to the Edifice, laid by the order & under an Appropriation of your honorable body, has been for Years, a heap of ruins solely for want of further public Assistance.

The Library of the College, which fell a sacrifice to the war of independence, has never been replaced but in so slender a degree as to make it a subject of ignominious Comparison with the pre-eminence, in this Respect of other american Colleges.

The Philosophical Apparatus originally good, has been damaged by long use, & unavoidable Accident, and is now incompetent to the advanced State of physical Science.

There is no proper Apartment for the Reception of a decent Library. There is no Hall fit for the Performance of public Exercises. There is no astronomical Observatory which is of essential moment both to our commercial and military marine: a solid basis for such a Structure was laid at the same time with the foundation of the new wing and left unfinished for the same Cause.

Your Memorialists are under the necessity of exacting, in two Instances the Labors of two Professorships from one Person, which renders the toil unreasonable and oppressive. They have found it due to the State of Science & and to public Opinion to institute a Professorship of Chemistry as a part of the academical Course, and have appointed a Professor without being able to give him any Compensation. They cannot employ Tutors to assist the Professors, an expedient found to be of eminent Utility in other Colleges. They cannot afford gratuitous Education to youth whose humble Circumstances debar them from its advantages, while their Talents and Virtues might render them Ornaments & blessings to their Country. They cannot erect buildings suitable for the Accommodation of the Students during the hours of Study, from which Circumstance much time is lost & injury sustained.

All these Difficulties & Embarrassments proceed solely from the Scantiness of their funds.

Your Memorialists flatter themselves that no literary Institution in the State can offer to the contemplation of your honorable Body a case more fully entitled to legislative Sympathy and Succour.

Your Memorialists are emboldened to hope that their Appeal to the magnanimity of your honorable Body will not be fruitless, especially when in addition to the preceding View, they respectfully add

1. That the patronage which Columbia College has received for a period of Thirty Years has been very limited & has not in the Aggregate amounted (if your Memorialists are correctly informed) to one fifth part of the benefactions made with the most praise worthy Munificence to a Kindred Institution.

2. That Columbia College was once in possession of landed property,* which if she still retained it, would be amply sufficient for her wants, & would save your Memorialists from the afflicting necessity of importuning your honorable body. That property was transferred by the State of New York, on great political Considerations to other hands. It was entirely lost to the College, and no Relief, under the privations which the loss occasioned, has hitherto been extended to her.

Your Memorialists therefore pray that your honorable body will take the Premises into favorable Consideration, & grant such assistance therein as to your wisdom shall seem meet.

PROSPECTUS OF THE COLLEGE.

NEW YORK, May 31, 1754.

ADVERTISEMENT.

To such Parents as have now (or expect to have) Children prepared to be educated in the College of New-York.

I. As the Gentlemen who are appointed by the Assembly, to be Trustees of the intended Seminary or College of New-York, have thought fit to appoint me to take the Charge of it, and have concluded to set up a Course of Tuition in the learned Languages, and in the Liberal Arts and Sciences: They have judged it advisable that I should publish this Advertisement, to inform such as have Children ready for a College Education, that it is proposed to begin Tuition upon the first Day of July next, at the Vestry Room in the new School-House, adjoining to Trinity-Church in New-York, which the Gentlemen of the Vestry are so good as to favour them with the Use of it in the Interim, till a convenient Place may be built.

II. The lowest Qualifications they have judged requisite in order to Admission into the said College, are as follows, viz. That they be able to read well, and write a good legible Hand; and that they be well versed in the Five first Rules in Arithmetic, i. e. as far as Division and Reduction; And as to Latin and Greek, That they have a good Knowledge in the Grammars, and be able to make grammatical Latin, and both in construing and parsing, to give a good Account of two or three of the first select Orations of Tully, and of the first Books of Virgil's Aeneid, and some of the first Chapter of the Gospel of St. John, in Greek. In these Books therefore they may expect to be examined; but higher Qualifications must hereafter be expected: and if there be any of the higher Classes in any College, or under private Instruction, that incline to come hither, they may expect Admission to proportionably higher Classes here.

III. And that People may be the better satisfied in sending their Children for Education to this College, it is to be understood that as to Religion, there is no Intention to impose on the Scholars, the peculiar Tenets of any particular Sect of Christians; but to inculcate upon their tender Minds, the great Principles of Christianity and Morality, in which true Christians of each Denomination are generally agreed. And as to the daily Worship in the College Morning and Evening, it is proposed that it should, ordinarily, consist of such a Collection of Lessons, Prayers and Praises of the Liturgy of the Church, as are, for the most Part, taken out of the Holy Scriptures, and such as are agreed on by the Trustees, to be in the best Manner expressive of our common Christianity; and, as to any peculiar Tenets, everyone is left to judge freely for himself, and to be required only to attend constantly at such Places of Worship, on the Lord's Day, as their Parents or Guardians shall think fit to order or permit.

IV. The chief Thing that is aimed at in this College is, to teach and engage the Children to know God in Jesus Christ, and to love and serve him, in all Sobriety, Godliness, and Righteousness of Life, with a perfect Heart, and a willing Mind; and to train them up in all virtuous Habits, and all such useful Knowledge as may render them creditable to their Families and Friends, Ornaments to their Country and useful to the public Weal in their Generations. To which good Purposes, it is earnestly desired, that their Parents, Guardians and Masters, would train them up from their Cradles, under strict Government, and in all Seriousness, Virtue and Industry, that they may be qualified to make orderly and tractable Members of this Society;—and, above all, that in order hereunto, they be very careful themselves, to set them good Examples of true Piety and Virtue in their own Conduct. For as Examples have a very powerful Influence over young Minds, and especially those of their Parents, in vain are they solicitous for a good Education for their Children, if they themselves set before them Examples of Impiety and Profanness, or of any sort of Vice whatsoever.

V. And, lastly, a serious, virtuous, and industrious Course of Life, being first provided for, it is further the Design of this College, to instruct and perfect the Youth in the Learned Languages, and in the Arts of reasoning exactly, of writing correctly, and speaking eloquently; and in the Arts of numbering and measuring; of Surveying and Navigation, of Geography and History, of Husbandry, Commerce and Government, and in the Knowledge of all Nature in the Heavens above us, and in the Air, Water and Earth around us, and the various kinds of Meteors, Stones, Mines and Minerals, Plants and Animals, and of every Thing useful for the Comfort, the Convenience and Elegance of Life, in the chief Manufactures relating to any of these Things: And, finally, to lead them from the Study of Nature to the Knowledge of themselves, and of the God of Nature, and their Duty to him, themselves, and one another, and every Thing that can contribute to their true Happiness, both here and hereafter.

Thus much, Gentlemen, it was thought proper to advertise you of, concerning the Nature and Design of this College: And I pray God, it may be attended with all the Success you can wish, for the best Good of the rising Generations; to which, (while I continue here), I shall willingly contribute my Endeavours to the Utmost of my Power.

Who am, Gentlemen, Your real Friend And most humble Servant

SAMUEL JOHNSON.

N. B. The Charge of the Tuition is established by the Trustees to be only 25s. for each Quarter.

George the third, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland king defender of the faith and so forth.

TO all whom these presents shall come greeting.

Whereas the Governors of the College of the Province of New York in the city of New York in America by their humble petition presented unto our late trusty and well beloved Sir Henry Moore, Baronet then our Captain General and Governor-in-chief of our said Province and read in our Council for our said Province on the fourth day of February which was in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty seven, did set forth among other things, that the petitioners being desirous of extending and rendering as beneficial as possible the laudable institution committed to their care which had been distinguished by the countenance, protection and liberality of our said late captain general and governor in chief's predecessors, had been at some pains in discovering a tract of vacant land in hopes that our said late captain general and governor in chief from a consideration that there was a similar provision for learning in other colonies might be induced to appropriate the same for the better support of an establishment, in the prosperity of which they conceived the public to be deeply interested. That there was a tract of land which tho' very distant and uncultivated, they hoped and under proper improvement might contribute to this end. Situate on the west side of Connecticut river within our said Province and called and known by the name of Dasham, bounded to the eastward by a tract of land then lately petitioned for and to be called Gageborough; to the southward by a tract of land commonly called or known by the name of Tunbridge, to the westward by vacant land, and to the northward by a tract of land then lately petitioned for under the name of Chatham, and extending so far westward as to comprehend the quantity of twenty-five thousand acres. And therefore the petitioners do humbly pray that our said late captain general and governor in chief would be favorably pleased by our letters patent to grant unto them and their successors the tract of land above described and that the same might be erected into a township with the usual privileges WHICH PETITION having been referred to a committee of our Council for our said Province our said Council did afterwards on the twelfth day of the same month of February in pursuance of the report of the said committee humbly advise and consent that our said late captain general and governor in chief should grant the prayer hereof ~~and whereas~~ the said petitioners by their farther petition presented unto our trusty and well beloved Cadwallader Colden, esquire, our lieutenant governor and commander in chief of our said Province and read in our said Council on the seventh day of February now last past did among other things set forth, that on the thirteenth day of May which was in the said year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty seven a certain other tract of land was advised to be granted to Nathaniel Marston and his associates situate on the west side of Connecticut river bounded easterly by a tract of land commonly called or known by the name of Corinth and southerly by the above mentioned tract of land known by the name of Dasham, northerly by a line beginning at the west line of the said tract of land known by the name of Corinth at the distance of about four miles and an half from the southwest corner of the said tract of land known by the name of Corinth and running parallel to the north boundary line of the said tract of land known by the name of Dasham and westerly by a line from the north line of the said tract of land known by the name of Dasham continued westward to the said parallel line and at such a distance from the said tract of land known by the name of Corinth and parallel thereto as to comprehend twenty-four thousand acres. That the said Nathaniel Marston and his associates had relinquished their claim thereto, intending with the consent of the petitioners to apply for a grant of the tract first above described in lieu thereof, that neither of the said tracts of land though within the limits formerly claimed by the government of New Hampshire had ever been patented or granted under that government and therefore the petitioners did humbly pray that our said lieutenant governor and commander in chief would be favorably pleased to grant to them and their successors the said tract of twenty-four thousand acres of land instead of the tract prayed for by them in their said first recited petition and that the said tract of twenty-four thousand acres might be erected into a township by the name of Kingsland with the usual privileges granted to other townships within our said Province. On reading and due consideration of which last recited petition our Council of our said Province did humbly advise and consent that our said lieutenant governor and commander in chief should by our letters patent grant to the said petitioners and their successors for ever the tract of twenty-four thousand acres of land last described as aforesaid under the quit rent, provisoes, limitations and restrictions prescribed by our Royal instructions. And that the said tract of twenty-four thousand acres of land should be erected into a township by the name of Kingsland with the usual privileges granted to other townships within our Province of New York. In pursuance whereof and in obedience to our said Royal instructions our commissioners appointed for the setting out all lands to be granted within our said Province have set out for the said petitioners ~~All that~~ certain tract or parcel of land within our province of New York situate, lying and being in the county of Albany on the west side of Connecticut river beginning at a beech tree marked with the letters WK NWcorner PM, EW, for the southwest corner of a tract of land called Corinth and runs thence along part of the west bounds of the last mentioned tract north thirty degrees east three hundred and sixty chains to a hard maple tree, having some large stones laid around it and a beech tree twenty five links west of the said maple tree marked with the letters and figures PM, EW 1767. Then from the aforesaid hard maple tree north fifty seven degrees west seven hundred and one chains; then south thirty degrees west three hundred and sixty chains; then south fifty seven degrees east seven hundred and one chains to the place where this tract first began containing twenty four thousand acres of land and the usual allowance for highways and in setting out the said tract of twenty four thousand acres of land our said commissioners have had regard to the profitable and unprofitable acres and have taken care that the length of the said tract of land doth not extend along the banks of any river otherwise than is conformable to our said Royal instructions as by a certificate thereof under their hands bearing date the second day of this instant month of March and entered on record in our secretary's office for our said Province may more fully appear which said tract of land set out as aforesaid according to our said Royal instructions. We being willing to grant to the said petitioners their successors assigns for ever with the several privileges with the several privileges and powers hereinbefore mentioned. Know ye that of our special grace certain knowledge and meer motion we have given granted, ratified and confirmed and do by these presents for us, our heirs and successors give, grant, ratify and confirm unto them the Governors of the College of the Province of New York in the city of New York in America their successors and assigns for ever all that the tract or parcel of land aforesaid set out abutted, bounded and described in manner and form as above mentioned, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, emoluments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or appertaining and also all our Estate, Right, Title, Interest, possession, Claim and Demand whatsoever of, in and to the same lands and premises and every part and parcel thereof and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof and every part and parcel thereof except and always reserved out of this our present grant unto us, our heirs and successors for ever all mines of Gold and Silver and also all white or other sorts of pine trees fit for masts, of the growth of twenty-four inches diameter and upwards of twelve inches from the earth for masts for the royal navy of us, our heirs and successors to have and to hold the said tract or parcel of land, tenements, hereditaments and premises by these presents granted, ratified and confirmed and every part and parcel thereof with their and every of their appurtenances (except as is hereinbefore excepted) unto them the Governors of the College of the Province of New York in the City of New York in America their successors and assigns, to the only proper use and behoof of them the Governors of the College of the Province of New York in the City of New York in America their successors and assigns for ever, to be holden of us, our heirs and successors in free and common socage as of our manor of

East Greenwich in our county of Kent within our Kingdom of Great Britain YIELDING, rendering and paying therefore yearly and every year for ever unto us, our heirs and successors at our custom house in our city of New York unto our or their collector or receiver general there for the time being, on the feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, commonly called Lady Day, the yearly rent of two shillings and six pence sterling for each and every hundred acres of the above granted lands and so in proportion for any lesser quantity thereof, saving and except for such part of the said lands allowed for highways as above mentioned in lieu and stead of all other rents services, dues, duties and demands whatsoever for the hereby granted lands and premises or any part thereof AND we do of our especial grace certain knowledge and meer motion create, erect and constitute the tract or parcel of land herein granted and every part and parcel thereof a township for ever hereafter to be continue and remain and by the name of KINGSLAND for ever hereafter to be called and known AND for the better and more easily carrying on and managing the public affairs and business of the said township our royal will and pleasure is and we do hereby for us, our heirs and successors give and grant to the inhabitants of the said township all the powers, authorities, privileges and advantages heretofore given and granted to, or legally enjoyed by, all any or either our other townships within our said Province. ~~And we also~~ ordain and establish, that there shall be for ever hereafter in the said township two assessors, one treasurer, two overseers of the highways, two overseers of the poor, one collector and four constables elected and chosen out of the inhabitants of the said township yearly and every year on the first Tuesday in May at the most public place in the said township by the majority of the freeholders thereof then and there met and assembled for that purpose; hereby declaring, that wheresoever the first election in the said township shall be held, the future elections shall for ever thereafter be held in the same place, as near as may be, and giving and granting to the said officers so chosen power and authority to exercise their said several and respective offices during one whole year from such election and until others are legally chosen and elected in their room and stead as fully and amply as any the like officers have or legally may use or exercise their offices in our said Province. And in case any or either of the said officers of the said township should die or remove from the said township before the time of their annual service shall be expired, or refuse to act in the offices for which they shall respectively be chosen, then our royal will and pleasure further is and we do hereby direct, ordain and require the freeholders of the said township to meet at the place where the annual election shall be held for the said township and choose other or others of the said inhabitants of the said township in the place and stead of him or them so dying, removing or refusing to act, within forty days next after such contingency. And to prevent any undue election in this case, we do hereby ordain and require, that upon every vacancy in the office of assessors, the treasurer and in either of the other offices the assessors of the said township shall within ten days next after any such vacancy first happens appoint the day for such election and give public notice thereof in writing under his or their hands, by affixing such notice on the church door or other most public place in the said township, at least ten days before the day appointed for such election, and in default thereof we do hereby require the officer or officers of the said township or the survivor of them who in the order they are hereinbefore mentioned shall next succeed him or them so making default within ten days next after such default, to appoint the day for such election and to give notice thereof as aforesaid; hereby giving and granting that such person or persons as shall be so chosen by the majority of such of the freeholders of the said township as shall meet in manner hereby directed shall have, hold, exercise and enjoy the office or offices to which he or they shall be so elected and chosen from the time of such election until the first Tuesday in May then next following, and until other or others be legally chosen in his or their place and stead, as fully as the person or persons in whose place he or they shall be chosen might or could have done by virtue of these presents. And we do hereby will and direct, that this method shall for ever hereafter be used for the filling up all vacancies that shall happen in any or either of the said offices between the annual elections above directed PROVIDED always and upon condition, nevertheless, that if our said grantees their successors or assigns shall not within three years next after the date of this our present grant settle on the said tract of land hereby granted so many families as shall amount to one family for every thousand acres of the same tract, or if they our said grantees their successors or assigns shall not also within three years to be computed as aforesaid plant and effectually cultivate at the least three acres for every fifty acres of such of the hereby granted lands as are capable of cultivation, or if they our said grantees their successors or assigns or any other person or persons by their, or any of their privity, consent or procurement shall fell, cut down or otherwise destroy any of the pine trees by these presents reserved to us, our heirs and successors or hereby intended so to be without the royal license of us, our heirs, or successors for so doing first had and obtained, that then and in any of these cases this our present grant and every thing hereinbefore contained, shall cease and be absolutely void and the lands and premises hereby granted shall revert to and vest in us, our heirs and successors, as if this our present grant concerning the same had not been made any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Provided further and upon condition also nevertheless and we do hereby for us, our heirs and successors direct and appoint that this our present grant shall be registered and entered on record with in six months from the date thereof in our secretary's office in our city of New York in our said Province in one of the books of patents there remaining and that a docquet thereof shall be also entered in our auditors office there for our said province and that in default thereof this our present grant shall be void and of none effect, any thing before in these presents contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding and whereas by the charter of our late royal grandfather King George the second under his great seal of the said Province of New York bearing date the thirty-first day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifty four and of his reign the twenty eight establishing the said college, it is among other things granted that the Governors of the College of the Province of New York in the City of New York in America to and for the use of the said college shall and may have full power and authority to give, grant, bargain, sell, demise, assign or otherwise dispose of all or any messuages, lands, tenements, rents and other hereditaments and real estate, and all goods chattels money and other things whatsoever as to them shall seem fit either in the payment of the salary or salaries of the president, fellows and professors of the said College or any other officers or ministers of the same at their will and pleasure (except as therein is excepted) and whereas some doubts have arose whether the said corporation have by reason of the above in part recited clause of the said charter, power in any manner to dispose of any their messuages, lands, tenements, rents, hereditaments or real estate not comprised within the said exception unless in the payment of the salary or salaries aforesaid. Now for preventing all doubts or disputes concerning the same for the future, we do by these presents for us, our heirs, and successors of our especial grace certain knowledge and mere motion ordain and declare and give and grant to the Governors of the College of the Province of New York in the city of New York in America and their successors for ever that it shall and may be lawfull for them and their successors for ever by the same name, to give, grant, bargain, sell, demise, assign or otherwise dispose of the lands, tenements and hereditaments by these presents granted, and all other the messuages, lands, tenements, rents, and other hereditaments and real estate which they now or hereafter may have or hold (not comprised within the said exception) either in fee simple, for life or lives or for years, or in any other manner whatsoever which they shall think most conducive to the benefit of the said College, any thing in the said charter above mentioned to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. And whereas the said exception in the said charter above mentioned respects certain lands in the said charter more particularly described, situate on the west side of the broad way in the West ward of the City of New York which at the time of granting the said charter were set apart and have been since conveyed by the rector and inhabitants of the City of New York in communion of the Church of England as by law established to the Governors of the College of the Province of New York in the city of New York in America in fee to and for the use of the said College and it is thereby ordained that no grant or lease of the said land or any part thereof shall be made by the said governors of the said college which shall exceed the number of twenty-one years and that either in possession, or not above three years before the end and expiration or determination of the estate or estates in possession as by the same charter recourse being thereunto had, may more fully appear. And whereas the Governors of the College of the Province of New York of the city of New York in America by their farther humble petition presented unto our said lieutenant governor and commander in chief of our said Province and read in our said Council for our said Province on the fourteenth day of February now last past did represent that they found the said restriction last mentioned to be prejudicial to the interest of the said college, as from the steepness of the banks of the necessity of wharfs and other impediments, that part of the said land (contained within the said exception) which fronts the North river cannot be improved but at a very great expense and therefore humbly prayed our said Lieutenant governor and commander in chief would be favorably pleased by our letters patent to enable the petitioners to grant and demise that part of the said lands which fronts the said North river to the extent of two hundred feet from the same, for any term not exceeding ninety nine years. . Know ye further therefore that of our especial grace certain knowledge and mere motion, we have given and granted and by these presents for us, our heirs and successors do give and grant to the Governors of the College of the Province of New York in the city of New York in America and their successors for ever full power and authority and that it shall and may be lawful for them and their successors for ever to grant and demise for and during any term not exceeding ninety nine years, ALL THAT part and parcel of the said lands (conveyed as aforesaid by the rector and inhabitants of the city of New York in communion of the Church of England, as by law established to the said governors of the college of the Province of New York in the city of New York in America) from the whole front thereof on the said North river as far back as the depth of two hundred feet from the said river, anything in the said charter contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. AND WE do moreover of our especial grace and certain knowledge and mere motion, consent and agree, that this our present grant being registered, recorded and a doquet thereof made as before directed and appointed shall be good and effectual in the law to all intents, constructions and purposes whatsoever against us, our heirs and successors notwithstanding any misreciting, misbouding, misnaming or other imperfections or omission of in or in any wise concerning the above granted or hereby mentioned or intended to be granted lands, tenements, hereditaments, powers, privileges, authorities and premises or any part thereof.

In testimony whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent and the great seal of our said Province to be hereunto affixed. Witness our said trusty and well beloved Cadwallader Colden, Esquire, our said lieutenant governor and commander in chief of our said Province of New York and the territories depending thereon in America at our Fort in our city of New York by and with the advice and consent of our said Council for our said Province the fourteenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy and of our reign the tenth.
